FROM THE LIBRARIANS

The librarians have cleaned out the music folders, removing personal items and leaving them in your music slot. Please use your music folder for Chancel Choir music only and handle them with care to help keep them in good shape. These folders were brand new just 3 years ago!

Music folders should not leave HPUMC. If you want to take your music home to practice, the librarians can supply a folder for you to transport your music. Remember, however, that all music must be returned!

COOKBOOK UPDATE

Many thanks to all of the "Singing Chefs" who prepared delicious appetizers and punch for our Welcome Party last Saturday!

LAST CHANCE! We have decided to open up recipe submissions for new and returning choir members for the next two weeks only. Also, if you were not able to submit a recipe in June, you will be able to do that now. LAST CHANCE!!!! All recipe are due no later than MIDNIGHT, Monday, September 6. (NOTE: If we start to have space limitations on the pages of the cookbook, those with multiple submissions may have some of their recipes cut.) Please use the Recipe Form attached to the email you received from Sandi this week. Send your recipes to Kristl Evans: kevans0409@gmail.com.

SWEET RETREAT! We will be testing and tasting cakes and pies during lunch at the Choir Retreat on Saturday, September 11, so if you're a baker, watch for the recipes and sign-up sheet on the front table at choir next week!

PLEASE FOLKS, DO TRY THIS AT HOME! It's our goal to test every recipe in the book. We're looking for more "Singing Chefs" who would like to test more recipes. All will be credited in the book for being part of the process. Please send an email to Jeanne: jeanne@reinelt.net and let her know what categories of recipes you'd like to make (appetizer, main dish, breakfast, soup, salad, bread, muffins, desserts, sauces, beverages, etc.)

Cook, Book, Love!
